The Dewan of Mysore Province,
Bangalore.

Most-respected Sir,

The humble petition of Sreekanta[illegible], retired Police Jamadar, Ragawangala Taluk,

Most-respectfully Sheweth:—

The Petitioner has been ordered to retire, from the 1st of November 1903, by the Inspector General of Police, according to the Government order.

He thinks that in the Pension Roll to be Submitted by the Superintendent of Police, French Rocks, it might have been mentioned that the Pension should be given for the time he served on pay above Rs 10 and [illegible] below Rs 10.

He has served for 2½ years below Rs 10, for 9 years on pay Rs 10, for 8 years above Rs 10 and below Rs 13, for 4 years on pay Rs 15, for 6 years on Rs 20 and lastly for one year on pay Rs 25. Thus on the whole he has served for 30½ years.

As he has served for 28 years on pay above Rs 10 and below Rs 25, he is a claimant for half the Pension, having reckoned the 2½ years' time below Rs 10 as an inferior service and half of 28 years as the Superior one, under the article 256, Civil Service Regulation dt: 31st May 1901, the time served on pay being taken to Superior Service.

Thinking that in the Police department the said time entered the 9 years' time on pay Rs 10 as an inferior service, in accordance with the Civil Service Regulation, he begs of your honour to be kind enough to order him for half the Pension, by getting transferred the above said service into the Superior one, with an endorsement, for the Petitioner, to the Secretary of State.

He has petitioned to your benevolent honour previous to the submission of the Pension Roll by the Police department, which he thinks will be submitted, for orders, within some 20 days.

About this he has also given petitions to the Deputy Commissioner as well as to the Inspector General of Police on 23.4.04.

25.4.04

He begs to remain,
Most Respected Sir,
Your honour's most obedient and humble servant
Sd/ Sheik Auta Rao.
